

Oregon Shakespeare Festival 2013

A Midsummer Night's Dream

*Pre-trip play readings continue this quarter...and it is not too late to join us!
March 23, April 13, May 4, 5:30-9:00 p.m. at the Journey Center.*

Join us for a group trip to Ashland's Oregon Shakespeare Festival in late June/early July 2013.

Tickets are being ordered now and the group meets monthly for fun and informative play readings and a pre-trip party. OSF is the country's premiere repertory theatre offering a wide range of Shakespearean, classical and new plays. Visit their website at www.osfashland.org.

*As a group we'll see Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream plus participants can purchase tickets for any number of other excellent plays including King Lear, Taming of the Shrew, My Fair Lady, Two Trains Running, A Streetcar Named Desire, The Unfortunates, Cymbeline,
The Heart of Robin Hood and Liquid Plain.*

For play-reading events, pre-trip orientation/party and "hosting services" (help getting tickets, lodging, food, etc.) the cost is $100. For monthly play readings only (but not the trip) the cost is $60. All other costs vary, depending on the ticket, lodging, food and transportation choices each participant makes.

Register online at www.journeycenter.org or call the Journey Center at 707-578-2121.

For an information packet, please contact Joanna Quintrell at joanna@journeycenter.org or 707-578-2121.
